

Washington State Office of Public Defense
Appointed Attorney's Fee Schedule

Attorneys must submit invoices –

- I. After Statement of Arrangements is filed*
- II. After brief is filed*
- III. After close of case (e.g. after case is heard with or without oral argument)*

Category A:

For the following categories of appellate cases, the fee is

- I. After State of Arrangements is filed -- $200*
 - II. After brief is filed -- $1050*
 - III. After close of case (e.g. after case is heard with or without oral argument) -- $850*
- TOTAL: $2100*

- 1. Direct Appeal.
- 2. Motion for Discretionary Review granted by the Court of Appeals.
- 3. Civil review with valid Order of Indigency and appointment.
- 4. Personal Restraint Petition only where attorney is appointed.
- 5. Motion for Discretionary Review granted by the Supreme Court.

Category B:

For the following categories of appellate cases, the fee is

- I. After Statement of Arrangements is filed -- $200*
 - II. After brief is filed -- $627*
 - III. After close of case (e.g. after case is heard with or without oral argument) -- $427*
- TOTAL: $1254*

- 1. Petition for Review granted.
- 2. Appeal from probation revocation hearing.
- 3. Appeal from guilty plea.
- 4. Sentencing appeal.

5. Accelerated Review of a disposition in a juvenile offense matter.
6. Motion for Discretionary Review denied by the Court of Appeals (Respondent only)
7. Motion for Discretionary Review denied by the Supreme Court (Respondent only)
8. Response to a review brought by the state.

Category C:

For the following category of appellate cases, the fee is.

- I. After Statement of Arrangements is filed -- $200*
 - II. After brief is filed -- $570*
 - III. After close of case (e.g. after case is heard with or without oral argument) -- $370*
- TOTAL: $1140*

1. An Anders case concluding in a ruling/order of dismissal.

Category D:

For the following category of appellate cases, the fee is.

- I. After Statement of Arrangements is filed -- $200*
 - II. After brief is filed -- $1900*
 - III. After close of case (e.g. after case is heard with or without oral argument) -- $1700*
- TOTAL: $3800*

1. Aggravated first degree murder case, where the death penalty was not imposed.

Withdrawal and Substitution:

Where a withdrawal and substitution results in two or more counsel appearing in the same review proceeding, each counsel will receive an appropriate apportionment of the standard fee for the entire review.